

HOME / NEWS / CITIES / CHENNAI

Man from Chennai shelter reunited with family in Bihar after 11 years

The Banyan team rescued him six years ago and visited Bihar recently in search of his family

March 10, 2022 07:53 pm | Updated 08:14 pm IST - CHENNAI

S. POORVAJA

COMMENTS

SHARE

READ LATER

Sree Bhagwan, fifth from right, reunited with his family at Ramgarh village in Bihar. | Photo Credit: SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

In a story spanning two States, aided by the tireless efforts of the staff at the shelter he was housed in and a sudden stroke of luck, a 32-year-old man was reunited with his family in Bihar earlier this week, nearly 11 years after he went missing from his native village.

Articles older than 1 year are a part of The Hindu archives, available only to our premium subscribers.

Already a subscriber? Log in

Subscribe to read archive articles!

The Hindu Digital + The Hindu ePaper + Crossword

₹ 2399

SUBSCRIBE NOW

Learn more about The Hindu subscription

Latest News

- 7 mins ago - India
SC transfers endosulfan case to Kerala HC for monitoring government's medical and palliative measures for victims
- 15 mins ago - Business
Centre cuts windfall gains tax on domestic crude oil to nil
- 21 mins ago - Kochi
Man assaults doctor in Kerala government hospital, arrested
- 22 mins ago - Other States
Row over adopting father's surname in matrilineal Meghalaya

READ MORE STORIES

Trending

- 1 Man sleeping at a shopping complex run over by car at Pondy Bazaar in Chennai

2 Chennai Metro's phase II project tunnelling work picking up pace

3 Bengaluru-Chennai expressway likely to be ready by August 2024

4 Louis Berger has been chosen as the consultant for doing a master plan and the detailed techno economic report for Chennai's second airport planned at Parandur in Kancheepuram district, sources in the State government said.

5 Chennai girl secures perfect score Class X CBSE board exams